Wine Tour & Wine Tasting at Crown Wine Cellars

Located in Shouson Hill on the South side of Hong Kong Island, Crown Wine Cellars has six underground cellars and a private clubhouse comprised of 2 underground bunkers and a conservatory. The structure of Crown Wine Cellars itself was constructed more than 70 years ago by the British Military to serve as an ammunition and weapons storage depot in preparation of World War II (it was the last position to surrender to the Japanese in WW II and Hong Kong's most significant former military site). The conversion of the depot to cellars is a UNESCO awardwinning project. Join a 1-hour guided tour and learn more about the history, concept, design and operation of the wine cellars. After the tour, you are cordially invited to enjoy selected wines with tailor-made canapés.
