Kadoorie Farm and Botanic Garden Experience Tour

Situated on the slopes of one of Hong Kong's highest mountains, the Kadoorie Farm and Botanic Garden (KFBG) is a pioneering conservation and education centre that offers a profusion of activities for outdoor enthusiasts. Here you can wander the paths admiring vegetable gardens, greenhouses full of beautiful flowers and plants, and see animals up close. Sure to impress are the various conservation projects on display at KFBG.

On this Experience Tour, you will learn all about KFBG's environmental conservation efforts and how it relates to the overall conservation strategies and initiatives in Hong Kong.
