Hong Kong Hiking Tour - Deserted Beaches Hike (Sai Kung East Country Park)

These white sandy beaches with their clear blue waters are located in Sai Kung East Country Park. The walk takes you along coastline backed by lush tropical vegetation and forested ridges offering spectacular mountain and coastal sea views. Following a network of paths you'll pass fascinating old Hakka clan villages. This wild and wonderful area is a scenic and historical gem.

The Sai Kung uplands and coasts have always been sparsely populated and, from the 1970s, many villagers left their ancestral lands in favour of the city. The Deserted Beaches Hike offers a unique insight into the homes, lands and beaches that these villagers left behind. Although just 20km from Kowloon, this tour will make you feel a world away.
