Organised by the Hong Kong Tourism Board (HKTb), with China Construction Bank (Asia) as the title sponsor, the CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival opens today (26 October) and runs through Sunday (29 October) at the Central Harbourfront Event Space. The four-day event is the kick-off event of the Hong Kong Great November Feast and one of the celebration events of the 20th Anniversary of the establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR). This year's event features around 400 wine and food booths with many new and trendy elements, and offers an enriching gastronomic and lifestyle experience for visitors and locals.

Officiating guests of the CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival include: Mr Paul Chan, Financial Secretary of the Government of the HKSAR, Mr Edward Yau, Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development of the Government of the HKSAR, Mr Philip Yung, Permanent Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development (Commerce, Industry and Tourism) of the Government of the HKSAR, Dr Peter Lam, Chairman of the HKTb, Mr Stephan Delaux, Deputy Mayor of Bordeaux, Mr Allan Sichel, President of the Bordeaux Wine Council and Mr Jiang Xianzhou, Vice-Chairman & Chief Executive Officer of title sponsor China Construction Bank (Asia).

Key highlights of the CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine and Dine Festival

New, trendy elements offer a fun-filled dining and lifestyle experience:

- Five wine zones showcase fine wines from 20 countries & regions.
- "Robert Parker Wine Advocate Pavilion" is a new wine zone featuring premium wine selected by the world-famous authority on wine, Robert Parker Wine Advocate.
- "Bubbly Gala", another new wine zone, offers trendy sparkling wines, fizz cocktails, champagne, and a wide variety of other drinks.
- The "Country Pavilion" showcases wines from various countries including Bordeaux wines that have never been sold in Hong Kong before.
- The new "Tap & Go" FeedMe Lane houses 10 trendy Hong Kong restaurants, including three Michelin-starred delicacies.

- Also introduced for the first time at the Festival is “the Concept Store”, which offers a new shopping experience and features creative tableware and other products for people pursuing a fashionable lifestyle.

A prestigious food and wine-tasting experience

- The “Grand Wine Pavilion” showcases high quality wines from different countries and for the first time offers selected choices from world-famous wine critic James Suckling.
- Curtis Duffy, chef and owner of three Michelin-starred restaurant Grace; and André Chiang, chef and owner of restaurant André, which ranked 2nd in this year’s Asia’s 50 Best Restaurants; are coming to Hong Kong from Chicago and Singapore respectively, to collaborate with Janice Wong, the “Asia’s Dessert Queen” and master chefs from the InterContinental Hong Kong in the “Tasting Room”, to jointly create a unique gastronomic experience for participants.

Gastronomic delicacies galore at the Hong Kong Great November Feast

The CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival is the kick-off event for the Hong Kong Great November Feast (the Feast). Throughout November, various local restaurants and key dining districts will roll out a series of culinary events and special offers to tie in with the Feast, including culinary events featuring crabmeat, street carnivals like the “FUNtastic QRE Festival” and “Lan Kwai Fong Carnival”, dining offers such as “Sparkling Sunset@Harbour City” and various wine exhibitions and gourmet walks.
