Collection of Spending Receipts to Join “Staycation Delights” Starts Today

To encourage consumption and boost the local ambience, the Hong Kong Tourism Board (HKTB) announced today (26 Mar) that the public can start collecting original machine-printed receipts from spending at least HK$800 in physical retail or dining outlets to redeem them for a HK$500 discount on a hotel package from the new “Staycation Delights” programme. The HKTB will also launch the second round of the “Free Tour” programme when restrictions on local tours are relaxed.

Mr Dane Cheng, Executive Director of the HKTB, said: “After being hit by the fourth wave of the pandemic, retail sales in Hong Kong in the periods of December 2020 and January 2021 each dropped over 13% year on year. Revenue in the F&B sector in the fourth quarter last year declined 25%. As the pandemic has shown signs of alleviation, the HKTB has rolled out a new round of promotions under the ‘Holiday at Home’ campaign to boost consumption in the city’s retail and F&B sectors. We are grateful for the participation of the hotels in the promotion to boost the local ambience and encourage the public to experience local tourism and enjoy the services and facilities that Hong Kong hotels have to offer.”

About 140 hotels of various star ratings are participating in the new “Staycation Delights” (see the appendix for the list of participating hotels). From 10am on 9 April onwards, members of the public can book direct with a participating hotel by providing spending receipts. The HK$500 discount is applicable to all one-night or two-consecutive-night room packages of HK$500 or above of the participants’ own choice.
