

Jelajah HONG KONG

Halal Food • Accommodations • Experiences • Itineraries
Discover Hong Kong, the Muslim-friendly way

FOREWORD

Welcome to Hong Kong, a dynamic metropolis that enchants travellers with its endless skyline, vibrant street life, and deep-rooted traditions. Beyond its reputation as a global financial hub and shopping haven, Hong Kong has started to make a name for itself as a Muslim-friendly travel destination. With its growing awareness of Muslim-friendly needs and cultural inclusivity, the city invites you to experience its unique blend of modernity and heritage, all while accommodating your lifestyle and faith.

As you explore bustling districts like Tsim Sha Tsui and Central, you'll find mosques, Islamic centres, and Halal-certified eateries woven into the cityscape. This guide is here to help you navigate the city and experience the layers of Hong Kong.

Say It Like A Local

你好
Nei hou
Hello

好好食
Ho ho sik
Very delicious

好靚呀
Hou leng ah
Very pretty

正呀
Jeng ah
Awesome

唔該
Um goi
Thank You

MTR

The Mass Transit Railway system is clean, efficient and reliable, and covers all major districts in the territory, making it ideal for travellers exploring Hong Kong's various attractions. Octopus cards and credit cards are accepted as payment modes.

Taxis

Taxis in Hong Kong are metered, and can be hailed on the street or boarded at taxi stands at malls and MTR stations. There are 3 colours of taxis in Hong Kong serving different locations, but all taxis can travel to and from Hong Kong International Airport and Hong Kong Disneyland.

Red: Operate throughout most of Hong Kong, except for Tung Chung Road and the south side of Lantau Island

Green: Only service the New Territories

Blue: Only operate on Lantau Island

Taxis mainly accept cash, with some offering cashless payments through Octopus cards, Alipay or WeChat Pay. Besides the metered fare, passengers are also expected to pay for any tunnel tolls or surcharges incurred during the taxi ride. Prices will be listed on the inside of the taxi.

Emergency Services (Police, Fire, Ambulance):

☎ 999

Hong Kong Tourism Board Visitor Hotline:

☎ +852 2508 1234

Jelajah Hong Kong Site

Discover Hong Kong Visitor Centre

Weather (Hong Kong Observatory)

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|-------------------|
| ① Hong Kong International Airport | ⑤ Peak Tram | ⑧ Avenue of Stars |
| ② Hong Kong Disneyland | ⑥ Jamia Mosque | ⑨ Kowloon Mosque |
| ③ Ngong Ping 360 Village | ⑦ Masjid Ammar & Osman Ramju Sadick Islamic Centre | ⑩ Sneakers Street |
| ④ Ocean Park Hong Kong | | |

Hong Kong is divided into three main regions; Hong Kong Island, Kowloon, and the New Territories, including various outlying islands such as Lantau Island. Each area offers a unique glimpse into the city's different cultural and historical layers within its geographic diversity.

*Note: The map is not drawn to scale and is for illustrative purposes only.

Mosques in Hong Kong

Hong Kong is home to several historic mosques that reflect the city's rich Islamic heritage. Each serves as a spiritual anchor for the city's diverse Muslim community.

Kowloon Mosque

📍 105 Nathan Road, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon

Nestled in the heart of the Tsim Sha Tsui shopping belt, Kowloon Mosque is Hong Kong's largest mosque. With its stunning white marble and central dome, Kowloon Mosque blends spirituality and architecture in one of Hong Kong's busiest districts.

Masjid Ammar and Osman Ramju Sadick Islamic Centre

📍 No. 40, Oi Kwan Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong

Masjid Ammar is famous for being the third mosque ever to be built in Hong Kong. Located in Wan Chai, the Islamic Centre is an eight-storey building with added facilities, and even a Halal-certified canteen which serves authentic Halal dim sum!

Jamia Mosque

📍 30 Shelly Street, Central, Hong Kong

Jamia Mosque, the oldest mosque in Hong Kong built in 1849, features a mint-green exterior and serene atmosphere. Tucked away in Central's Mid-Levels Escalators, it provides a peaceful cultural escape from the city's busy streets.

Definition of Halal Certifications in Hong Kong

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified dish(es) and non-Halal items

Halal-certified Kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Muslim-owned restaurant
Serves Halal food only

Information about the halal-certified restaurants is provided by The Incorporated Trustees of The Islamic Community Fund of Hong Kong and merchants.

Mongkok & Jordan

Mongkok is one of Hong Kong's liveliest districts, known for its neon-lit streets and bustling markets. A mix of old and new, it's where traditional shops, trendy boutiques, and nightlife all come together.

Jordan offers a blend of old-world charm and urban energy. Known for its night markets, and authentic street culture, it's a great spot to experience everyday life in Kowloon.

Nearest Mosque
Kowloon Mosque

Mongkok

Ladies Market

📍 Tung Choi Street, Mongkok, Kowloon

The Ladies Market is a night market that stretches one-kilometre through the neighbourhood. Decked with rows of stores, it offers a mix of local flavours and unique finds for everyone! From clothes and toys to souvenirs, the market is a must-explore site, especially for anyone who loves shopping.

Sneakers Street

📍 Fa Yuen St, Mongkok, Hong Kong

Fa Yuen Street, better known as Sneakers Street, is a haven for sneaker enthusiasts and sports wear fans. Both sides of the street are lined with retailers selling a wide range of sneakers - from mainstream brands and models to limited edition pieces that are hard to come by, all at attractive prices!

旺角

Jordan Temple Street

📍 Yau Ma Tei, Hong Kong

The Temple Street Night Market is a bustling open-air night bazaar similar to Ladies Market. Besides shopping for souvenirs and knick-knacks, visitors can look forward to local street food and international snacks like kebabs and desserts.

Mo Keung To

📍 Shop 10, G/F, Man Ying Building, 10 Man Ying Street, Jordan

This restaurant offers flavourful Xinjiang cuisine in a casual setting and is best known for its tender lamb pilaf.

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Avanti Bistro

📍 2/F, Double Set Commercial Centre, No 37A-B Jordan Road, Kowloon

Enjoy authentic Halal Xinjiang cuisine and specialities like lamb skewers and hand-pulled noodles in a warm, inviting setting.

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Dignity Kitchen

📍 Shop 201 & 202, 618 Shanghai Street, Mongkok

Dignity Kitchen provides employment to people with disabilities, championing inclusivity and dignity. Halal dishes served here include classic favourites like Nasi Lemak and Curry Chicken.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified dish(es) and non-Halal items

尖沙咀

Tsim Sha Tsui

Tsim Sha Tsui is where Hong Kong's pulse beats loudest—a dazzling mix of colonial charm, futuristic skyline, and street-level energy that never sleeps.

Nearest Mosque
Kowloon Mosque

LEGOLAND Discovery Centre

♦ Shop B131-133, B1, K11 MUSEA, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon

Marvel at a miniature LEGO® version of Hong Kong's iconic skyline in MINILAND® built with 1.5 million LEGO bricks and let your little LEGO builders' imaginations run wild in the play zones and building areas. Perfect for a fun-filled half-day adventure, the centre offers a world of imagination and hands-on play.

Avenue of Stars

Ever wanted to walk amongst superstars? Just stroll down along the Avenue of Stars! Modelled after Hollywood's Walk of Fame, this walkway has handprints and statues in honour of famous figures like Bruce Lee! Set against the beauty of Victoria Harbour, it's the perfect backdrop for pictures with its iconic skyline.

Sail Along the Skyline of Hong Kong

Aqua Luna

♦ Tsim Sha Tsui Public Pier 1

Also known as "Cheung Po Tsai", the Aqua Luna offers a unique sightseeing cruise across the Victoria Harbour on an iconic traditional Chinese junk boat.

Tip: Choose the sunset cruise for that perfect golden hour shot of the Hong Kong skyline!

Chrisly Cafe (Bakery)

♦ Shop Nos. G7 & G8, G/F, Comm Deve, Harbour Pinnacle, 8 Minden Avenue, Tsim Sha Tsui

Chrisly Cafe offers the quintessential cha chaan teng experience! Enjoy their authentic Halal-certified bakes like the classic Hong Kong bolo buns and egg tarts.

Note: Only the bakery section of the restaurant is Halal-certified

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Lady 13 Kitchen

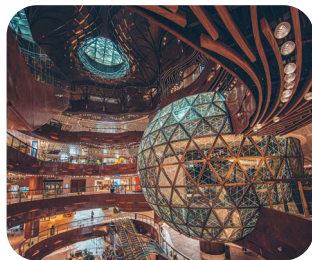

♦ Shop A, G/F, Valiant Commercial Building, 22-24 Prat Avenue, Tsim Sha Tsui

Serving a fusion of Chinese and Southeast Asian dishes, Lady 13 Kitchen's Halal-certified menu includes favourites like Crab Roe Noodles and Mala Noodles.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified dish(es) and non-Halal items

K11 Musea

- 📍 Victoria Dockside, 18 Salisbury Road, Tsim Sha Tsui

Blending art, nature, and retail, K11 MUSEA is a cultural-retail destination along Victoria Dockside in Tsim Sha Tsui. Known for its art-filled interiors and creative atmosphere, it's perfect for leisurely exploration and lifestyle shopping among designer boutiques.

Harbour City

- 📍 3-27, Canton Road, Tsim Sha Tsui

One of Hong Kong's largest shopping malls, Harbour City offers over 450 shops, a cruise terminal, and an observatory deck with sweeping views of Victoria Harbour. With a mix of luxury brands and family-friendly activities, it's an ideal stop for shopping and sightseeing in one convenient location.

Different Vibes, Same Street

Hong Kong Museum of Art

The Hong Kong Museum of Art showcases a rich collection of Chinese antiquities, paintings and calligraphy, and Hong Kong art. With its aim to make art more relevant and refreshing, their exhibitions offer a dynamic cultural experience rooted in Hong Kong's East-meets-West identity.

Marouf & Puff Bake

- 📍 G/F, Seasons Commercial Building, 3 - 3A Humphreys Avenue, Tsim Sha Tsui

Looking for a coffee break? Look no further than Marouf & Puff Bake! Besides coffee, this cafe is well-known for its Halal egg tarts, and it's perfect for a quick stop between shopping sprees.

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

Mr. BBQ

- 📍 1/F, Surson Commercial Building, 140-142 Austin Road, Tsim Sha Tsui

Being the first and only Halal Korean BBQ restaurant in Hong Kong, Mr. BBQ serves an assortment of meats and vegetables to perfect the Korean BBQ experience.

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

Cuisine Cuisine

- 📍 3/F, The Mira Hong Kong, Mira Place, 118 Nathan Road, Tsim Sha Tsui

Located at The Mira Hong Kong Hotel, Cuisine Cuisine serves authentic Cantonese fare and is a constant feature on the Michelin Guide. It offers Halal-certified à la carte and set menus. Advance notice is required.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified dish(es) and non-Halal items

Kowloon Canton Railway Clock Tower

The Clock Tower is a historic landmark of Hong Kong, standing since 1915. It remains preserved as a Declared Monument as part of the former Kowloon-Canton Railway terminus.

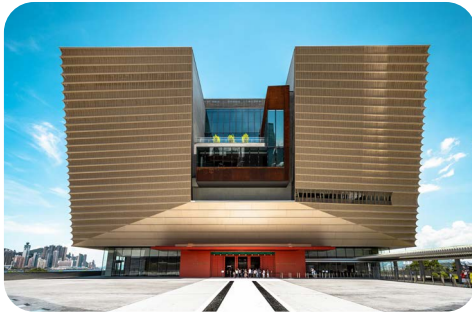

Hong Kong Space Museum

Recognisable by its iconic dome structure, the Hong Kong Space Museum invites visitors to explore astronomy and space science through over 100 interactive exhibits and a state-of-the-art planetarium.

West K

West Kowloon is a district dedicated to showcasing and supporting arts and culture in Hong Kong. With museums, performing arts venues and a breezy promenade for relaxation, West Kowloon is where you can immerse yourself in Hong Kong through an artistic lens.

Hong Kong Palace Museum

📍 West Kowloon Cultural District, 8 Museum Drive, Kowloon

Explore the rich heritage of Chinese art and culture at the Hong Kong Palace Museum, where centuries-old treasures meet modern exhibitions in a vibrant cultural hub at West K.

M+

📍 West Kowloon Cultural District, 38 Museum Drive, Kowloon

M+ is a striking museum dedicated to contemporary visual culture. With bold architecture and world-class exhibitions, it showcases art, design, and media from Hong Kong and beyond, redefining the museum experience.

Art Park

📍 West Kowloon Cultural District, 18 Museum Drive, Kowloon

Art Park is a waterfront haven in West K offering open lawns, creative installations, and panoramic harbour views. It's a perfect space for relaxing strolls, outdoor performances, or quiet reflection.

Xiqu Centre

📍 88 Austin Road West, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon

With its elegant interior, Xiqu Centre pays homage to traditional Chinese opera in a modern venue, blending timeless performances with contemporary design and cultural celebration.

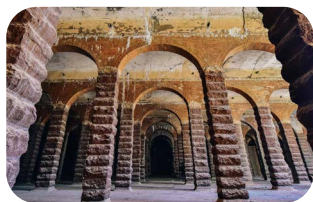

Sham Shui Po

Sham Shui Po is well-known for being rich in treasures! With thrift stores and open-air markets, you can experience local culture across different eras as you wander through the neighbourhood.

Toy Street

Fuk Wing Street (Toy Street) bursts with character, packed with toys, party supplies, and nostalgic gems. Popular with locals and visitors alike, it reflects the city's fun-loving side and old-school neighbourhood charm.

Ex Sham Shui Po Reservoir

- 📍 Mission Hill, Shek Kip Mei, Kowloon

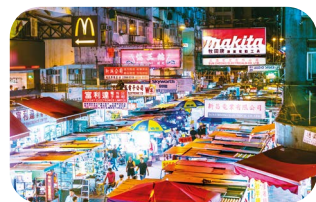

The Ex Sham Shui Po Reservoir, hidden under Bishop Hill, reveals an unexpected architectural wonder. Its Romanesque stone arches and underground charm have turned it into a quiet, photo-worthy site of historical significance.

Golden Computer Centre & Arcade

- 📍 94A Yen Chow Street, Sham Shui Po, Kowloon (Centre)

Golden Computer Centre is a tech haven filled with computer parts, gadgets, and retro video games. Whether you're a casual browser or a hardcore gamer, it's a buzzing spot for electronics and niche finds.

Apliu Street Flea Market

- 📍 Apliu Street, Sham Shui Po, Kowloon

Apliu Street Flea Market in Sham Shui Po is a bustling hub for electronics, vintage finds, and quirky collectibles — perfect for curious shoppers and bargain hunters seeking something unique.

Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC)

- 📍 Shop 317, Level 3, Dragon Centre, 37K Yen Chow Street, Sham Shui Po

A familiar fast food brand recognisable to many travellers, KFC has multiple Halal-certified outlets across the city.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified dish(es) and non-Halal items

Zai Lan Zhou

- 📍 8F12 Dragon Centre, 37K, Yen Chow Street, Sham Shui Po, Kowloon

This hidden gem specializes in authentic Lanzhou Beef Noodles. Slurp up delicious springy hand-pulled noodles in a hearty beef broth.

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

Lai Chi Kok Park

- 📍 1 Lai Wan Road, Lai Chi Kok, Kowloon

Lai Chi Kok Park blends traditional Chinese design with modern recreational space. With landscaped gardens, ponds, and even a swimming pool, it offers a peaceful setting for relaxation or exercising with nature.

九龍城

 Nearest Mosque
Kowloon Mosque

Kowloon City

Kowloon City is one of Hong Kong's most diverse districts. Once home to the city's former international airport, the area now features the Kai Tak Cruise Terminal and Kai Tak Sports Park — a world-class sports and entertainment complex set to host major events.

Kai Tak Stadium

This 50,000-seat stadium is the centrepiece of the Kai Tak Sports Park, built directly on the site of the old Kai Tak airport. Suitable for sports events, games and concerts, the retractable roof of the stadium ensures that events go on, rain or shine.

Kai Tak Mall

 38 Shing Tak Road, Kai Tak Sports Park, Kai Tak, Kowloon

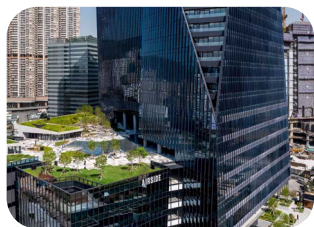

Joypolis

 G/F–4/F, Kai Tak Sports Park, Kai Tak, Kowloon

Situated within the Kai Tak Sports Park, Kai Tak Mall has nearly 200 retail and dining brands spread across 3 buildings. The mall boasts a world-class bowling centre, a climbing wall, and promises the ultimate 'sportainment' retail experience to visitors.

Joypolis is an exciting indoor entertainment zone packed with interactive & VR Games, and thrilling rides. Ideal for families and gamers, it offers a high-energy escape from the city's pace, all within a sleek, modern setting designed for immersive fun.

Airside

 2 Concorde Road, Kai Tak, Kowloon

Set in the heart of Kai Tak, Airside blends innovative design with lifestyle experiences. Featuring green terraces, art installations, and a curated mix of shops and dining, it's a fresh cultural space that reimagines urban living with a creative edge.

Kowloon Walled City Park

Explore Kowloon Walled City Park, where the colorful history of the former Walled City comes alive through exhibits and restored relics. Relax in the serene gardens inspired by traditional Chinese design for a unique cultural experience.

Islam Food

 G/F, 33–35 Tak Ku Ling Road, Kowloon

Boasting a history since the 1950s, Islam Food is a landmark halal eatery serving authentic Chinese Muslim dishes like the iconic Pan Fried Beef Buns and Curry Beef.

Muslim-owned restaurant
Serves Halal food only

銅鑼灣

Causeway Bay

Causeway Bay is a vibrant shopping and entertainment hub full of energy, yet offers hidden peaceful spots for a break.

Anggita Kusuma Dewi

Content Creator,
Indonesia

@kusumanggi

Exploring Causeway Bay by Ding Ding Tram was such a vibe! I could shop all day - there's everything from global brands to cute local finds - and still grab Muslim-friendly food nearby. Super convenient, and yes... totally OOTD-worthy too!

Nearest Mosque
Masjid Ammar and Osman
Ramju Sadick Islamic Centre

Warung Malang

2/F, Flat B2, Dragon Rise
Building, 9-11 Pennington
Street, Causeway Bay

Warung Malang serves authentic Indonesian cuisine right in the middle of Hong Kong! Stop by for plates of nasi padang, bakso, or sate that will make for a filling meal.

Braemar Hill

Braemar Point, Hong Kong
Island

A popular hike among locals, Braemar Hill offers peaceful trails and one of the best panoramic views of Victoria Harbour. Its vantage point is ideal for sunset photography and a quieter nature escape near the urban bustle.

北角

North Point

North Point blends tradition with quiet charm, offering a glimpse into local life - it's a nostalgic pocket that feels worlds away from the city's hustle.

Imperial Patisserie

Shop H, G/F, 29 Lee Garden
Road, Causeway Bay

Imperial Patisserie sells Halal-certified Hong Kong pastries and cookies like egg rolls and butter palmiers, perfect as gifts and souvenirs for family.

Dicos

G/F, Seng Ming Court, 377
King's Road, North Point

Chinese fast food restaurant, Dicos, offers their iconic golden fried chicken, burgers, and rice bowls - great value for Muslim travellers looking for a quick meal.

Central

The centre of everything, Central allows you to set the pace on your journey and to revel in the vibe of Hong Kong.

 Nearest Mosque
Jamia Mosque

Central Market

📍 93 Queen's Road Central, Central

Central Market blends heritage and modernity in a revitalised 1940s building. This vibrant space offers local shops, eateries, and cultural events in the heart of Hong Kong's Central district.

Central Mid-levels Escalator

📍 Queen's Road Central to Conduit Road, Central

Spanning over 800 meters, this outdoor escalator system connects the Mid-Levels to Central. It offers a unique way to explore shops, cafés, and street scenes while giving your legs a break on the city's steep terrain.

Monopoly Dreams

📍 Shop 301, 3/F, Peak Galleria
118 Peak Road, The Peak

Step into the world of the classic board game at Monopoly Dreams, located at The Peak. With themed zones, interactive games, and a 4D experience, it's a playful attraction perfect for families and fans of the iconic game.

Peak Tram

📍 33 Garden Road, Central, Peak Tram Lower Terminus

A classic Hong Kong experience, the Peak Tram takes you up steep slopes to Victoria Peak. The historic ride, paired with stunning panoramic views of the city, is both a nostalgic journey and a must-do for first-time visitors.

Hong Kong Observation Wheel

📍 33 Man Kwong Street, Central

Rising along the Central Harbourfront, the Hong Kong Observation Wheel provides panoramic views of the city and harbour, perfect for sightseeing day or night.

Tai Kwun

📍 10 Hollywood Road, Central

Tai Kwun was once a police station but now it's home to 16 revitalised heritage buildings! Admire art galleries, exhibitions, and performances within these restored colonial buildings.

IFC

📍 8 Finance Street, Central

IFC is a sleek landmark offering luxury shopping, fine dining, and business offices. With rooftop views and high-end boutiques, it's a symbol of modern Hong Kong elegance.

PMQ

📍 35 Aberdeen Street, Central

Once a police married quarters, PMQ is now a vibrant hub for local design and creativity, featuring art galleries, boutiques, and pop-up events that showcase Hong Kong's emerging talents.

Pasteako

📍 Shop HG01-HG05, G/F, Block B Hollywood, PMQ, 35 Aberdeen Street, Central

Pasteako specialises in Italian food, especially steaks and pastas which guarantee to sate your cravings.

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Flaming Frango

📍 G/F, 55 Elgin Street, Soho, Central

Home to delicious Peri-Peri flame grilled, spicy and 24-hour marinated chicken. Yums!

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

YUAN

📍 Shop 2, G/F, Chinachem Hollywood Centre, 1-13 Hollywood Road, Central

YUAN is Hong Kong's very first Halal-certified modern Chinese vegetarian fine-dining restaurant that serves innovative and alcohol-free plant-based dishes.

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Chinesology

📍 Shop 3101 - 3107, Level 3, IFC Mall, 8 Finance Street, Central

Chinesology is Hong Kong's first Halal-friendly certified fine dining restaurant, offering premium Chinese cuisine in an elegant setting.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified dish(es) and non-Halal items

Indah Nada Puspita

Entrepreneur, Indonesia

@indahnadapuspita

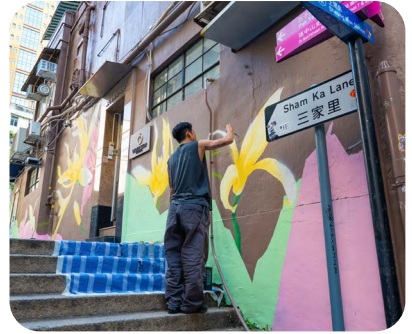

Central is my must-visit spot in Hong Kong, especially if it's for an OOTD! The mix of modern elegance and heritage charm makes it a fashion backdrop like no other. Every outfit just comes alive here!

Sheung Wan

Sheung Wan is a place filled with enchanting wonders that you can't help but slow down to admire!

🕌 Nearest Mosque
Jamia Mosque

Street Art

Hong Kong's street art scene is vibrant and ever-evolving, especially in areas like Central, Sheung Wan, and Sham Shui Po. Murals, tags, and graffiti inject color and culture into alleys, stairways, and building facades across the city. From politically charged pieces to whimsical designs and collaborations with global artists, the art reflects Hong Kong's creative pulse. Guided street art walks are also growing in popularity, showcasing the city's visual storytelling.

Safwan Nazri

Content Creator,
Malaysia

📱 @safwannazri

Hong Kong has this way of surprising us, with little bursts of art tucked into the city and moments of culture woven into everyday life. There's always something new to discover and never quite enough time. That's exactly why my family and I can't wait to be back to visit.

Upper Lascar Row

📍 Tai Ping Shan, Hong Kong

A haven for vintage lovers, Upper Lascar Row is filled with antiques, quirky collectibles, and nostalgic finds from Hong Kong's past.

💡 Fun fact: It is also known as Cat Street!

Western Market

📍 323 Des Voeux Road Central, Sheung Wan

Western Market, in a preserved Edwardian-style building, is one of Hong Kong's oldest markets, with fabric stalls, gift shops, and a charming peek into the city's trading history.

Wan Chai

Nearest Mosque
Masjid Ammar and Osman
Ramju Sadick Islamic Centre

Wan Chai is a vibrant blend of heritage and modern life, where colonial-era buildings meet our present.

Islamic Centre Canteen

📍 5/F, Masjid Ammar and Osman Ramju Sadick Islamic Centre, Wan Chai

Located inside Masjid Ammar, the restaurant serves authentic Hong Kong Halal dim sum and Cantonese dishes. Crowd favourites include siu mai, glutinous rice and crispy roast chicken.

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

Wai Kee

📍 Shop 5, Bowrington Road Cooked Food Centre, 1/F, Bowrington Road Market, 21 Bowrington Road, Wan Chai

Wai Kee is local Muslims' go-to Halal spot for Roast Duck rice and their famous mutton curry.

Muslim-owned restaurant
Serves Halal food only

Blue House

📍 G/F, 72A Stone Nullah Lane, Wan Chai

Home to Hong Kong House of Stories, The Blue House uplifts the tapestry of different cultures across communities. Through art performances, workshops, and more, The Blue House keeps these cultural stories alive.

Wan Chai Promenade

📍 Hong Kong Convention And Exhibition Centre, Expo Dr, Wan Chai

Stretching along the harbour, Wan Chai Promenade offers open views of Victoria Harbour, seating areas, and public art. It's ideal for a relaxing stroll, jog, or sunset break, connecting locals and visitors to the city's waterfront charm.

Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre

📍 1 Expo Dr, Wan Chai

HKCEC is a premier venue for global conventions and exhibitions, set right on the harbour in Wan Chai—don't miss its stunning skyline views and iconic sleek, sail-like architectural design.

Tip: You can find prayer rooms here on Level 2.

大 嶼 山

Lantau Island

Lantau Island is the place to be to satisfy your inner explorer, or to let yourself fully enjoy the fun.

Hong Kong Disneyland

📍 Lantau Island, Hong Kong

Step into Hong Kong Disneyland Resort for a magical experience. Explore eight lands filled with beloved Disney stories, characters, and award-winning and exclusive attractions.

Tip: Quiet room located at Mystic Point is available for prayers.

Halal Food

📍 Halal-certified meals are available in Adventureland and Muslim-friendly menus can be found in the resort's hotel restaurants.

Ngong Ping 360

📍 Lantau Island, Hong Kong

Ngong Ping 360 offers a panoramic and breathtaking view of Lantau Island with a scenic cable car ride from Tung Chung to Ngong Ping Village. From there, spend the day exploring the majestic Po Lin Monastery and iconic Big Buddha statue.

Tip: Ngong Ping Village has prayer rooms available - just ask the Holidays 360 Information Centre about it!

Ebeneezer's

📍 Shop 9A, Ngong Ping Themed Village, Ngong Ping, Lantau Island, Hong Kong

A familiar chain to the Muslim community in Hong Kong, Ebenezer's serves hearty comfort food like Halal kebabs, pizzas and more.

Halal-certified kitchen restaurant
Restaurant with Halal-certified kitchen;
Selling alcohol to non-Muslim customers

Tai O

📍 Lantau Island, Hong Kong

Tai O is a peaceful fishing village on Lantau, known for its traditional stilt houses, heritage walks, local snacks, and the charming Tai O Heritage Hotel.

Hong Kong International Airport

Hong Kong International Airport is a world-class travel hub known for its efficiency, modern design, and seamless connections to the city and beyond. The airport features a wide range of shopping and dining options, along with convenient public transport links to the city. Whether you're arriving, departing, or in transit, HKIA ensures a smooth and comfortable travel experience.

Tip: The airport has prayer rooms in the departure halls from level 5-7!

Petra

📍 Regala Skycity Hotel, 8 Airport Expo Boulevard, Hong Kong International Airport

Petra is a Muslim-friendly international cuisine restaurant that caters to a diverse range of palates, that even has live cooking stations.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified
dish(es) and non-Halal items

Contact the restaurant to pre-book your Halal meal.*

Skycity Bistro

📍 Hong Kong SkyCity Marriott Hotel, 1 Sky City Road East, Hong Kong International Airport

Located at Hong Kong SkyCity Marriott Hotel on Lantau Island, Skycity Bistro offers a dedicated Halal menu for all-day dining.

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified
dish(es) and non-Halal items

Kee Wah

📍 Shop 7E101, Airside, Terminal 1, Hong Kong International Airport

Kee Wah Bakery is a household name in Hong Kong, serving pastries since 1938. Last chance to buy some Halal souvenirs and cute panda cookies for your friends and family.

Halal-certified Food Factory

Old Town White Coffee

📍 Shop 6W564, West Hall Airside, Terminal 1, Hong Kong International Airport

Nestled within Hong Kong International Airport, Old Town White Coffee provides you the space to grab a coffee and a snack to unwind while waiting for your flight.

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

香港仔

Nearest Mosque
Masjid Ammar and Osman
Ramju Sadick Islamic Centre

Aberdeen

If you're interested with anything related with the ocean, Aberdeen has several stories surrounding the deep blue sea for you to discover.

Aberdeen Fishing Heritage Tour

📍 Aberdeen Harbour

Step back in time with the Aberdeen Fishing Heritage Tour, where you can explore traditional sampan boats, visit the floating village, and learn about Hong Kong's seafaring past. It's a cultural journey through one of the city's oldest fishing communities.

I-O-N

📍 P3/F, Nina Hotel
Island South,
55 Wong Chuk
Hang Road,
Aberdeen

I-O-N offers Southeast Asian buffets and its signature noodle bar while delivering a vibrant, casual dining experience, and you can even enjoy desserts from Nina Patisserie within the hotel as well!

Halal-friendly certified restaurant
Serves both Halal-certified
dish(es) and non-Halal items

Ocean Park Hong Kong

📍 180 Wong Chuk Hang Road, Aberdeen,
Hong Kong Island

Ocean Park blends thrilling rides with animal encounters in a scenic coastal setting. From roller coasters with sea views to a peaceful Giant Panda habitat, it's a premier resort destination that mixes adrenaline with conservation and family fun.

Tip: Prayer rooms are available near the Guest Reception at the Main Entrance and near "The Flash" ride in the Thrill Mountain zone.

Café Ocean Restaurant

📍 Marine World, Summit,
Ocean Park Hong Kong,
Aberdeen

Café Ocean has a wide array of Southeast Asian cuisine that you can indulge in around Marine World, making it a convenient spot to eat while enjoying sea view dining.

Halal-certified restaurant
Not selling alcohol

Siti Mastura Alwi

Chef, Singapore | @chefsitimas

Exploring Hong Kong with my family has been amazing! From the thrilling rides and adorable animals at Ocean Park to discovering some of the best Muslim-friendly food tucked away in the city's vibrant neighbourhoods, every moment has been an adventure — fun-filled, delicious, and unforgettable.

Island Hopping

Searching for more adventures?
Hop on a ferry and explore these islands!

Cheung Chau

Just 30 minutes away from the city, Cheung Chau blends local tradition and adventure with its plethora of outdoor activities, street snacks, and heritage – best known for its Bun Festival, an annual traditional event that's unique to the island.

 Fun Fact: Cheung Chau resembles a dumbbell due to its shape!

Lamma Island

Lamma Island is a serene getaway with bohemian flair. Hike scenic trails, feast on fresh seafood, visit quaint villages, and unwind on calm beaches while enjoying the island's relaxed atmosphere.

 Tip: Rainbow Seafood Restaurant has Halal-certified dishes for Muslim travellers to enjoy.

Peng Chau

Step into a slower rhythm on Peng Chau, a tiny island filled with heritage sites, seaside walks, and rustic charm. It's a relaxing getaway with rich culture and scenic views just a ferry ride away.

Sharp Island

Sharp Island is known for its volcanic rock formations and natural tombolo. Accessible by boat from Sai Kung, it's a great spot for hiking, swimming, and exploring unique coastal geology.

Great Outdoors Exploration

Concrete jungle one moment, coastal trails the next – adventure pulses in Hong Kong's Great Outdoors.

Tai Mo Shan

📍 Tai Mo Shan, New Territories

Towering at 957 metres, Tai Mo Shan is Hong Kong's highest peak and a favourite among hikers. With misty trails, sweeping views, and cooler air, it offers a refreshing escape into nature.

Sai Kung

📍 New Territories

Known as Hong Kong's "back garden," Sai Kung offers scenic hikes, clear waters, and fresh seafood. A paradise for nature lovers, it's ideal for day trips, kayaking, and island-hopping escapes.

MacLehose Trail

📍 Sai Kung, New Territories

Stretching over 100 kilometres, the MacLehose Trail is Hong Kong's longest and most iconic hiking route. Divided into 10 stages, it traverses mountains, beaches, and reservoirs, offering challenging treks and rewarding landscapes.

Dragon's Back

📍 Hong Kong Island

Dragon's Back is one of Hong Kong's most popular hikes, offering ridge-line trails and sweeping views over Shek O and Big Wave Bay. Just a short trip from the city, it's a scenic escape that blends forest paths with coastal panoramas.

Plover Cove Country Park

📍 Plover Cove Country Park, Shuen Wan

For a day escaping the hustle and bustle of the city, Plover Cove Country Park has it all – from traditional walled villages to amazing coastal scenery, "fung shui" woods and the stunning geological features of the Hong Kong UNESCO Global Geopark.

Stand-up Paddleboarding

📍 Multiple locations across the island

Stand-up paddleboarding (SUP) is a fun way to explore Hong Kong's coastline, or even villages like Yung Shue O and Sham Chung. It offers a refreshing way to enjoy the sea while balancing fitness and relaxation.

Muslim-friendly Hotels

CrescentRating categorises hotels based on the level of Muslim-friendly services they offer, helping travellers choose accommodations that suit their needs. These ratings guide Muslim travellers to accommodations that align with their faith, offering comfort and peace of mind throughout their stay.

Crescent Rated 5 hotels provide the highest level of assurance for Muslim travellers, with Halal-certified kitchens or restaurants and a wide range of dedicated faith-based facilities.

Crescent Rated 4 hotels maintain strong support for Muslim guests through Halal-certified menus, water-friendly toilets and in-room prayer amenities.

Crescent Rated 3 hotels ensure comfort through basic yet accommodating facilities, including a Halal breakfast corner, Qibla directions, and information on nearby mosques and Halal restaurants.

Aberdeen

- 5 Crescent Rating
Hong Kong Ocean Park Marriott Hotel
- 3 Crescent Rating
Nina Hotel Island South
- The Fullerton Ocean Park Hotel Hong Kong

Admiralty

- 3 Crescent Rating
JW Marriott Hotel Hong Kong
- The Upper House Hong Kong

Central

- 5 Crescent Rating
Island Shangri-La, Hong Kong
- 4 Crescent Rating
Four Seasons Hotel Hong Kong
- 3 Crescent Rating
Lan Kwai Fong Hotel @ Kau U Fong
- Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong
- The Murray, Hong Kong, A Niccolo Hotel

Causeway Bay & North Point

- 5 Crescent Rating
Mira Moon Hotel
- 3 Crescent Rating
Harbour Grand Hong Kong
- Harbour Plaza North Point
- Hotel Alexandra
- Hyatt Centric Victoria Harbour Hong Kong
- Regal Hongkong Hotel
- The Park Lane Hong Kong, Autograph Collection

Wan Chai

- 5 Crescent Rating
Grand Hyatt Hong Kong
- 3 Crescent Rating
AKI Hong Kong-MGALLERY

- 3 Crescent Rating
Dorsett Wanchai, Hong Kong
- Hopewell Hotel
- Novotel Century Hong Kong
- Renaissance Harbour View Hotel Hong Kong

Hung Hom

- 5 Crescent Rating
Kerry Hotel Hong Kong
- 3 Crescent Rating
Harbour Grand Kowloon

Mongkok & Jordan

- 3 Crescent Rating
Cordis, Hong Kong
- Dorsett Mongkok, Hong Kong
- Eaton HK
- Hotel Madera, Hong Kong
- Metropark Hotel Mongkok, Hong Kong
- Royal Plaza Hotel

Kowloon City & Kai Tak

- 3 Crescent Rating
Dorsett Kai Tak, Hong Kong
- Harbour Plaza 8 Degrees

Kwun Tong

- 3 Crescent Rating
Nina Hotel Kowloon East

Tsim Sha Tsui

- 5 Crescent Rating
Kowloon Shangri-La, Hong Kong
- New World Millennium Hong Kong Hotel
- The Mira Hong Kong
- 3 Crescent Rating
Gateway Hotel
- Holiday Inn Golden Mile Hong Kong
- Hotel ICON Hong Kong
- InterContinental Grand Stanford Hong Kong
- K11 Artus

- 3 Crescent Rating
Marco Polo HongKong Hotel
- Prince Hotel
- Regal Kowloon Hotel
- Regent Hong Kong
- Rosewood Hong Kong
- Royal Pacific Hotel
- Sheraton Hong Kong Hotel & Towers
- The Kowloon Hotel
- The Langham, Hong Kong
- The Luxe Manor, Hong Kong

New Territories

- 5 Crescent Rating
Dorsett Tsuen Wan, Hong Kong
- 3 Crescent Rating
Alva Hotel by Royal
- Courtyard by Marriott Hong Kong Sha Tin
- Hong Kong Gold Coast Hotel
- Hyatt Regency Hong Kong, Sha Tin
- Nina Hotel Tsuen Wan West
- Regal Riverside Hotel

Lantau

- 3 Crescent Rating
Four Points by Sheraton Hong Kong Tung Chung
- Regal Airport Hotel
- Regala Skycity Hotel
- Sheraton Hong Kong Tung Chung Hotel

SCAN FOR MOST UPDATED
LISTING

5 Days of Family Fun in Hong Kong

Day 1 Arrival & City Exploration

Morning Activity

- Explore the bustling neighbourhood of Tsim Sha Tsui and stop by Harbour City for a quick shopping spree.

Lunch

- Dine at Lady 13 Kitchen, where you can try classic Chinese dishes like Crab Roe noodles.

Afternoon Activity

- Take in the wonders at the LEGOLAND Discovery Centre in K11 MUSEA, and let the kids' imagination run free!

- Use Octopus Card for easy transport on MTR, buses, and ferries
- Most attractions are stroller- and kid-friendly
- Stay in a centrally located hotel with family rooms or suites

- Take a pit stop for snacks at Marouf & Puff Bake to grab some coffee and their iconic Halal egg tarts.

- Enjoy the golden hour on Aqua Luna's sunset cruise while taking in the sights of the Victoria Harbour.

Night Activity

- Head to Mongkok for dinner at Dignity Kitchen restaurant.

- Shop for the latest sneakers and sportswear at Sneakers Street, and put your bargaining skills to the test at the neighbouring Ladies Market.

Day 2 Hong Kong Disneyland

- Spend the day at Hong Kong Disneyland

Must-see zones: World of Frozen, Toy Story Land, and Marvel-themed Tomorrowland.

Don't miss the "Momentous" night-time fireworks & drone show.

- Halal food, prayer room and stroller rental available

Day 4 Dim Sum & Peak Exploration

Brunch

- Indulge in Halal dim sum at the Islamic Centre Canteen within Masjid Ammar for a casual brunch.

Afternoon Activity

- Take the historic Peak Tram to Victoria Peak for an interesting experience of buildings looking like they are leaning - as the tram climbs a steep incline up the hill (up to 27 degrees!)

- Visit engaging attractions on the Peak like Monopoly Dreams and Madame Tussauds for a fun-filled afternoon.

- Enjoy Hong Kong's iconic skyline views from Sky Terrace 428.

Evening Activity

- Head over to Causeway Bay to spend some time shopping to unwind.

Dinner

- Enjoy a filling meal of Halal roasted duck at Wai Kee to end off your day.

Day 3 Ocean Park Hong Kong

Morning Activity

- Head to Ocean Park Hong Kong for a fun-filled, educational experience. Learn more about marine life, and meet animals like sealions and penguins, and visit the crowd favourites - the pandas! Complete the Ocean Park experience with thrilling rides and fun carnival games.

Lunch

- Enjoy a Halal-certified meal like Chicken Rice or Beef Rendang at Café Ocean, with stunning views of the South China Sea.

Afternoon Activity

- Take a scenic Ngong Ping 360 cable car ride across the mountains to get to Ngong Ping Village and learn more about Chinese culture.

Dinner

- Have dinner in the village itself at Ebenezeer's Kebabs & Pizzeria for Halal delicacies.

Day 5 Local Markets & Departure

Morning Activity

- Head to Sham Shui Po district's Toy Street for some toy shopping and take some time to check out Apliu Street for affordable electronic goods too!

Afternoon Activity

- Check out from your hotel and make your way to the airport.

Heading Home

- Say goodbye to Hong Kong as you fly back with unforgettable memories!

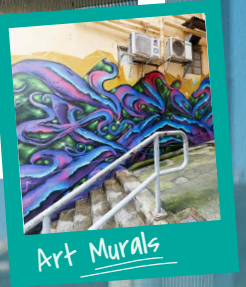

Hong Kong Must-dos

• for Gen MZ

Art That Hits Different:

- ☐ Art murals and street art exploration at Sheung Wan and Sai Ying Pun.
- ☐ Deep dive into contemporary art at M+.
- ☐ Appreciate art and Hong Kong history at redeveloped historical buildings like Tai Kwun and PMQ.

For the Flex & the Feast:

- ☐ Score that pair of limited edition sneakers at Sneakers Street.
- ☐ Go treasure hunting at vintage shops like Select 18 and Good Bad Creative.
- ☐ Grab Halal-certified souvenirs at Imperial Patisserie, Kee Wah, Cookie Quartet, etc.
- ☐ Taste authentic Halal Hong Kong dim sum at Islamic Centre Canteen.

Hikes, Harbours & Hashtags:

- ☐ Reach greater heights (literally) hiking up one of Hong Kong's many mountains, for example, Dragon's Back or Lion Rock.
- ☐ Bask in the golden sunset hour sailing down Victoria Harbour on Aqua Luna.
- ☐ Take that perfect instagrammable shot:
 - o Central Mid-Levels Escalator
 - o Kennedy Town
 - o Retro-inspired photoshoot along Central
 - o Mosaic walls at MTR stations

Halal in Travel Awards 2025

Most Promising Muslim-friendly
Destination of the Year

Mastercard-CrescentRatingGlobal Muslim Travel Index Ranking 2025

🏆 1st in Muslim-friendly Accessible Travel Destination

🏆 2nd in Safety for Muslim Women Travel

*for non-OIC destinations

The Hong Kong Halal Travel Guide is a publication of the Hong Kong Tourism Board (HKTb) and HalalTrip. Contents and design ©2025, all rights reserved. Reproduction without written permission is strictly prohibited. Every effort was made to ensure the accuracy of the information in this guide as of press time. However, the Hong Kong Tourism Board (HKTb) and its agents, partners, and affiliates assume no responsibility for errors, changes, or omissions. For the most accurate and up-to-date information, please refer to:

www.discoverhongkong.com/seasia

Hong Kong Tourism Board
Official Website

